

MELISSA TIBBS

DIRECTOR OF SUSTAINABILITY

A native of Chesapeake, Virginia, Melissa came to Kentucky from Baltimore, Maryland in 2011. Melissa's office is responsible for the Council's strategic planning, data collection and analysis, public communications, fundraising, and developing grant proposals. Melissa obtained a Baccalaureate degree in Psychology from Bridgewater College and a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Special Education from The Johns Hopkins University. Melissa resides in Lexington and recently got married to her husband, Keith. She is a fan of the Kentucky Theatre and The Local Taco Restaurant.