Eat a meal with your child when possible and encourage toddlers to practice saying "please," "thank you," and taking turns talking.

Invite your child to help with simple chores, such as putting toys away, setting napkins on the table, or feeding a pet, to build responsibility and a sense of belonging.

Plan a playdate or a family visit for your child to interact with siblings, cousins, or friends while practicing sharing and kindness.

Encourage your child to help a family member, give hugs, share toys, or say kind words, and celebrate these positive behaviors.
